REVEREND AND BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN IN

Our Savior's parting conversations with His the Evangelist St. John has recorded, are the Lord's Church of the New Testament unto the end of data primarily comfort and consolation, they prove beyond. while Christ's kingdom is preeminently a kingdom of Church of God can grow and flourish also in need This fact Church History has sufficiently proved. cutions of the first three centuries the Church and powerful and was spread abroad. Despite the hostilian men of this world, which Luther and his colabora-Gospel ran a swift course, and the seed took root in many. As a rule, in fact, the Church of God thrive than in fair weather. Accordingly, we should not or dispirited by the evil times in which we live at b the stability of the Church must remain settled be so that with holy zeal we at all times study and sta the Church. In His parting words the Savior admonia this, saying, John 15, 16: "Ye have not chosen Me, but you and ordained you that ye should go and bring to that your fruit should remain."

Here the Lord Jesus draws our attention to the Church of God arises on this wise, that He chooses meet wherefore it is not due to our merit and worthiness. and ineffable grace of our Savior that we are Christian tian dare say: I believe on Jesus Christ and call because I have chosen Him, and in my heart have resolu-Him as my Savior. On the contrary, whoever is a Chin. a Christian because the Savior, by His grace and men him out of the sinful human race and has kindled light of faith. The Lord is deeply concerned that this in no wise beclouded, but stand forth clear and dis He says: "Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen removes this contrast and deranges this relation by man has contributed something, though it be ever conversion, destroys the Christian doctrine and contri statement of our Savior. God's children at all time entire salvation, beginning, middle, and end, rests in me, but solely and alone in the hands of my Savior, bought me with His blood.

Certain as this is, however, it does not follow an idler who enjoys God's grace and awaits the future tivity. On the contrary, a Christian is so disposed that without ceasing. Such is the nature and mind which inted in Him: "Ye have not chosen Me, but I have that ye should go and bring forth fruit." Here the impares every Christian to a tree which He has planted n, i.e., the Christian Church, and which He now faithdigging about it, dunging it, pruning it, and purging it ear fruit. Hence, while the Scriptures on the one hand finst in any way placing our confidence in works, they, hand, admonish us to be diligent unto good works. "Good and pious works never make a good and pious good and pious works never make a good and pious good and pious works, so on must always be good and pious before all good works, irks follow and proceed from a pious and good person." children of God constantly examine themselves whether in fruits, beseeching their Lord to make them ever richer admonishing each other unto all good works. And this to do at the present Synod. Brethren, the Lord has that we go and bring forth fruit. As we look back on must accuse ourselves for not having been richer in in our office and estate. How often, during the past ers, has littleness of faith and despair laid hold of our w much have earthly things engrossed our attention and our eyes from the eternal! How often have we failed d steadfastness and the true courage of confession! How times weary of carrying on the Lord's work! Let us his to our God, beseeching Him to give us more strength, we we may bring forth more fruit. Now, the fruits which seks especially on the tree of our Synod are these, that e preached among us in truth and purity, and that we, ren of God, also lead a holy life according to it. Our at therefore exercise diligence that their congregations crease in knowledge. Congregations must be concerned young people receive a thorough schooling in the sound that the principles of holy living, laid down in God's ractised in their midst, thus assuming a firm position onism, lodgery, worldliness, and the like, that they prove to be a salt in the place where they dwell and a light others and makes of them also blessed children of God. iereas, during these days we are assembled as the repreour congregations, God grant that we bring forth fruit ir deliberations serve to the hallowing of God's name elves and other men by pure doctrine and godly living, kingdom come and His good and gracious will be done.

Great and important matters pertaining to an educational institutions, the spread of our missing festation of gratitude to the sick and aged secawait the action of this present Synod. Let deliberations in the consciousness that we are whom a sure and rich inheritance is laid up in called to work here on earth. In all transaction Jesus ever echo in our hearts: "Ye have not choosen you and have ordained you, that ye sho forth fruit."

The Lord adds the words: "And that your friction Many a tree puts forth wild wood, which robs the sap and strength, so that the fruit does not riper for that tree when the gardener comes and prune wood. We, too, must keep watch over ourselves, wild shoots and bear worthless fruit. Hustle and in all manner of undertakings, the organization of societies, and the like are often considered fruit the Church, while they may be wild wood which burned. Jesus has ordained us that we go and and that our fruit remain.

All those fruits remain which grow out of the test serve the Gospel.

God grant that during these days we mature no but bear fruit that remains, to the joy of God's diholy angels, to the increase of our dear Savior's kingglory of our great God! Amen.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

I. General Resolutions.

Resolutions concerning Increase of Salaries.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 30. 31.)

The reports of the Board of Directors and of various local of institutions, as well as numerous memorials, called Synod's tion to the need of increasing the salaries of the professors.

ACTION.

Synod resolved to increase the salaries of all professors, beginn July 1, 1920. The normal or basic salary for regular professors fixed at $1,800 per year and free dwelling. According to a previously of Synod, the professors of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis were exempted from this rule and were granted an increase of per cent. over their present salaries. The salaries of assistant fessors at our colleges were fixed at $900 per year.

Terms of Assistant Professors.

The Board of Directors also reported that they had repeat been requested to increase the salary of an assistant professor at the customary amount, asking Synod what to do in such cases. It also asked Synod to pass definite resolutions fixing the term of a of assistant professors.

ACTION.

Synod resolved to adhere to the custom of retaining assist professors for a term of two years. In special instances, howelocal boards are permitted to retain an assistant professor for or two additional years. Should this necessitate an increase of all the amount shall be determined by the local board acting in junction with the Board of Directors.

Erection of Professors' Residences in Cases of Emergency

The Board of Directors reported that they had repeatedly compelled to erect professors' residences before Synod could at the matter, since no suitable residence could be found for one professors. In order to obviate the necessity of taking immerely in the hope that Synod would subsequently ratify requested Synod to authorize them to erect such residences hemergencies arise.

ACTION.

od resolved to authorize the Board of Directors to erect s' residences in cases of emergency, when no suitable home bound for them.

Tabular Report of Institutions.

(Germ. Rep., p. 32.)

It the Convention in 1917 Synod assigned to the Board of visors the duty of issuing a tabular report of our institutions. Ber. 1917, p. 43). This involves a duplication of work, since relatistician also makes such a compilation. On request of the ad, Synod resolved to relieve the Board of this duty and to assign as to the statistician.

eting of Representatives of Institutions and Board of Directors.

(Germ. Rep., p. 33.)

On recommendation of the Board of Supervisors, Synod authord them to call a meeting of the representatives of our institutions d the Board of Directors at the Delegate Synod in order to afford portunity for personal contact, removal of misunderstanding, and amonious cooperation.

Disburdening of Mess Funds.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 33. 35.)

The Board of Supervisors and several memorials also recomended that the drain on the mess funds of our institutions be omewhat checked by defraying the cost of heating the buildings from the Synodical Treasury. During the year 1919 the average llowance per meal was 7 cents.

ACTION.

Synod resolved that the cost of heating the buildings of our institutions and, in the case of the teachers' colleges, the electric lower for the organs shall hereafter be defrayed from the Synodical reasury. The Board of Directors was ordered also to assign to each institution a certain territory from which gifts in money and broduce can be solicited for the institution.

Board of Education. Superintendent.

(Germ. Rep., p. 34.)

The Pastors' and Teachers' Conference of Fort Wayne will vicinity presented a memorial asking Synod to elect a Board Education to carry out uniformly the educational resolutions passed at Detroit and to empower this Board to appoint a Superintendent for our higher educational system.

ACTION.

Synod resolved to refer this matter to a committee appointed by the Chair for further deliberation and for recommendation at the next convention.

Annual Institution Sunday.

Action to this effect was requested in a memorial of the Northern Illinois District; Synod, however, declined to pass such resolution.

Report of the Survey Committee.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 35. 36.)

The Convention of 1917 ordered the President in consultation with the four Vice-Presidents to appoint a Committee on Educational Survey. This Committee, consisting of P. Roesener, F. Tresselt. W. Dallmann, C. F. Brommer, and O. L. Hohenstein, made a complete survey of our educational institutions with respect to educational standards and courses of instruction. They report that the men who compose the faculties of our institutions are faithful and pious professors who at all times have endeavored to train up not only well-informed, but also truly Christian pastors and teachers. Nevertheless their own examinations and deliberations as well as the advice and recommendations of others have crystallized in them the conviction that existing conditions in both the Church and the world, as well as the increased demands made on our pastors and teachers make a higher standard of education imperative. To this end they made a number of recommendations. These together with memorials from other sources and the reports of the various local boards led to the following resolutions: -

Resolutions Concerning Higher Education.

(Germ. Rep., p. 35.)

In order to awaken love and zeal for study, it was resolved that the professors again and again hold before their pupils the high aims and the glorious purpose of their various studies. Scholars in the lower classes especially are to receive the necessary directions for solving their problems, and, in general, for studying correctly. Where the customary literary degrees are to be conferred on our Debating societies shall enjoy the friendly supervision, ement, and advice of a professor. The necessary instruction tical hints concerning the cultivation and care of the vocal to be imparted. In the interest of health physical exercises taken up at our colleges and normal schools. In order to personal Christianity, scholars are to be urged daily and fically to read the Holy Scriptures for their own edification he direction of the instructor in religion, and to be diligently ed of daily prayer. Devotional exercises shall be conducted I possible variation in prayers, hymns, and Scripture-lessons. events shall there receive due notice. In the study of the the great difference between Christianity and heathenism repeatedly be emphasized. The President of Synod and his ints, members of respective boards of control, and boards of shall diligently visit the institutions. The professors ought ccasionally to visit each other's classes to stimulate mutual at and to promote harmonious cooperation. Grammatical inion especially is to be given in cooperative manner to avoid less and wasteful repetition. New institutions shall be built on astic plan.

With reference to the libraries it was resolved to give the tents access also to the professors' libraries; to provide for a was of the St. Louis Seminary library on the part of pastors; commend the libraries of our normal schools to our teachers for the libraries at the state of the st. Louis, Springfield, River Forest, Seward, Fort fone, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Bronxville, Winfield, and Concordia. Inover is to be granted $50, Oakland, $75, Porto Alegre, $75, and ortland, $75.

Accrediting of Institutions.

(Germ. Rep., p. 36.)

An unprinted memorial of the Chicago Pastoral Conference retested such changes in the curricula of the theological institutions would make it possible that the normal course of these institutions all be accredited with the State so that the graduates could obtain tate teachers' certificates.

ACTION.

Synod resolved that the courses at St. Louis and Springfield be shaped that the graduates of these institutions, who are often alled upon to teach school in their mission-work, can secure State achers' certificates, which in some States are required of those who just teach school.

Resolutions to Raise the Standard of our Teachers (Germ. Rep., p. 37.)

Entrance requirements were fixed at the completion grade. Applicants deficient in some branches are to be a preparatory class in charge of an experienced school the proposal to institute correspondence courses was represented to arrange summer courses.

Resolutions to Raise the Standard of Our Coll (Germ. Rep., p. 36.)

Entrance requirements for our colleges were fixed at grade. However, provision shall be made for applicants some branches by arranging, if necessary, at the respects a preparatory class in charge of an experienced school-

The course at our colleges shall be arranged in a Classical High School Course and a two-year Classic Course. A detailed curriculum was ordered prepared by a composed of members of the faculties of the colleges, of the faculty, and of representatives of the Survey Committee ning the curriculum, this committee shall take into conthe accreditation demands of the various States where the are located.

Synod also appropriated the necessary laboratories, stem and other helps for teaching.

The matter and manner of instruction shall be as unpossible, the curriculum rigidly carried out, and harmonious tion of professors insisted upon. More reading is to be reather an and oral work in and English. Students who have not satisfactorily compositions are College Class (Prima) must either repeat the obtain the necessary credits before matriculating at the Seminary.

Additional Courses at Our Colleges.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 39. 40.)

A memorial of the Lutheran Education Society, commembers of our congregations in the East, petitioned Synod provision at our colleges for the education also of such reasons are not preparing for service in the Church. The follows ments were advanced in the memorial: The increasing dentity higher education in our circles; the consequent attendance part of our youth at State and sectarian institutions, in the of such institution in our circles; the loss of hundreds of and most promising young people who thus have made ship faith; the duty of the Church to guard the young against

ACTION.

Synod resolved to fix the minimum salary for these missionaries at $100 per month and free dwelling, and to remind all congregations through the Lutheraner and the Lutheran Witness of the previous resolution, that every congregation lift one collection annually for this treasury, for example, on the 12th Sunday after Trinity. One of the missionaries was given an opportunity to address a few words to the convention.

Jewish Mission.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 131-133.)

This work is carried on in Greater New York amid much opposition and bitter organized hostility on the part of the Jewish population, so that police protection repeatedly has had to be requested. Still a number of Jews suffer nothing to keep them from the services. Converts are few, since embracing Christianity means for the Jew forsaking his home, his relatives, and his friends.

The following figures show what energetic work is being done by the missionary. •153 sermons to a total of 3,974 auditors; 1,391 religious talks in Jewish homes; 3,078 calls in Greater New York; 5,391 Jewish callers received privately; 5,750 tracts, 1,501 Catechisms, and 740 New Testaments distributed gratis; 935 copies of the New Testament lent to Jews on deposit of cost price; 6 sermons and 2 lectures delivered in the interest of the mission; 76 Jews purchased New Testaments for 25 cents, and 35, Catechisms for 5 cents; 100 Catechisms sent on order to the Lutheran Hospital, and 25 to the Jewish Mission of the Reformed Church; 100 Catechisms were presented by a friend of the Lutheran Hospital.—$6,968.65 was disbursed during the past three years.

The Board reported that the missionary's salary had been raised, and requested authority to purchase a residence.

ACTION.

Synod, by resolution, recommended to the Board to consider whether it would not be profitable to remove the mission to another location in view of the bitter hostility encountered. Should the mission remain in New York, the Board was authorized to purchase a dwelling for the missionary at a cost not exceeding $8,000 and to solicit donations for this purpose in Lutheraner and Lutheran Witness. The Treasurer's report was also presented and reported correct.

Foreign-Tongue Mission.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 134-138.)

There are 14 missionaries engaged in this work: among Poles, 4; Lithuanians, 5; Letts, 2; Slovaks, 1; Italians, 1; Esthonians and Finns, 1. New churches were erected by the Slovaks in Detroit and Poles in Colgate, Md. The work among the Persians was disginued. Missionaries are urged to provide the rising generation in the necessary English services. Growth in knowledge and love the Gospel is manifesting itself in increased support of the Church. It treasury for foreign-tongue students for the ministry was able to int the needed support after making a loan of $200. In Chicago attempt was also made to do mission-work among Poles who had the Catholic Church. A few were gained for our Polish congretion, but the work has now been discontinued:

Summary: Sermons, 2,945; attendance, 142,322; communed, 151; baptisms, 386; marriages, 103; burials, 128; confirmed, 126; tal income from the missions, $13,954.44. $10,000 will be needed carry on the work in 1920.

The Board requested the publication of Synod's Catechism, Pasar Geo. Jurkszat having made the translation which was subquently revised by the missionaries; the publication of a Lettish criodical, the missionary in Boston having at great pains translated the Catechism and Bible History; and the publication of a Polish ymnal in Latin letters.

The audited report of the treasurer was also presented.

ACTION.

The committee in charge recommended that the report on foreign-tongue Mission, which was not published in the Synodal-bricht of 1917, be included in the Report for 1920. Synod, however, resolved to leave this to the discretion of the Secretary. It was furthermore resolved to publish the Lithuanian Catechism, to approve the publication of a Lettish paper containing selections from the Lutheran Catechism and from Bible History. The request for the Polish hymnal was tabled owing to the great expense. The Board was authorized to call a foreign-tongue immigrant missionary as soon as this is found desirable. The committee in charge of the report recommended Pastor Ell, of Perry, Okla., for this position.

Indian Mission.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 138-142.)

Vacancies in the Board due to the fact that Pastors H. Maack and F. Selle declined to accept the office were filled by the election of Pastors F. Siebrandt and G. Schroedel. January, 1918, Missionary Otis Lang resigned for reasons of health. The vacancy was filled by calling Pastor H. M. Tjernagel, who was then on the verge of severing his connections with the Norwegian Lutheran Church for reasons of conscience. Teacher E. A. Peetzke was drafted into the army. His position was successfully filled by lady teachers and pupils. The Board intends to continue this plan, the missionary instructing in religion. The Gospel is preached at Red Springs, Motgan Siden Neopit. The opening of another preaching-station in White Reservation among the Chippewa Indians is being contemps $23,873.78 was disbursed during the past three years.

Three years ago Synod appropriated $26,000 for a new dormat Red Springs. The subsequent rise in prices made this sun sufficient. Dire need compelled the Board to begin with the second a building, the cost of which, it is hoped, will not exceed $33.

The Board requested Synod to approve the Board's action in ginning this building; to urge all congregations that have not contributed to send in an offering without delay ($19,000 are needed); to appropriate at least $10,000 annually for Indian is sions; to authorize the Board to borrow the money needed to matthe final payment on the building and to provide for repaying to loan by adding $2,000 to the annual budget; and to appropriate $1,000 for a chapel at Morgan Siding.

The committee in charge of this report sustained the requestive whereupon they were granted by Synod. The annual appropriation was fixed at $15,000. The missionary was also encouraged to have the field at Neopit, where the services are attended by comparatively few at present.

The committee in charge reported that no financial report was presented. A letter from one member of the auditing committee however, was presented stating that he had audited the books and found them to be correct. The committee also reported that they had been assured that both the missionary as well as the Board had labored faithfully and expressed regret that the needed financial assistance had not been forthcoming. This report also was adopted by Synod.

Foreign Mission.

India.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 142 ff.)

Twenty-five years ago our Synod began its foreign mission-work in East India. During these years 20 missionaries and 1 mission nurse have been sent. The field to-day embraces 64 stations. Three institutions prepare native assistants for our missions. The war, however, has sadly impeded this work. In spite of repeated attempts, no new workers could be sent since 1915. Death, sickness, and war conditions have reduced the number of missionaries from 15 to 4. An appeal for help was made to our sister synod in Australia. A graduate of their seminary accepted a call to this field, and, God willing.

Still the work has not only been carried on, but has even been extended. Statistics for 1919: 5 missionaries, 169 native assistants will soon enter upon his labors.

China.

(Germ. Rep., p. 145.)

Nine years ago a mission society in our circles sent the first sonary to China, followed by another in 1915. At the last contion. Synod assumed this mission. Six additional missionaries since been sent. One has recently resigned in order to qualify self as a mission doctor. Our missionaries and 6 native assistants preach at six stations in the city of Hankow. The Christians mber 69 souls; of these, 53 are communicants, and 35, voting mbers. 12 schools are maintained, where 2 missionaries, 10 male 3 female teachers instruct 427 children. 11 persons were baptized ing 1919. Synod as yet owns no property. It was recently resolved begin a new mission in Shihnanfu, over 300 miles southwest of nkow. This is a district where practically no Protestant missionk has yet been done. Receipts for the past three years, $42,633.03; bursements, $46,734.56. The Board is now trying to secure the rices of a nurse for this field. Efforts were also made, though uncessful, to obtain a missionary doctor for both India and China. cancies in the treasurership of the Board were filled by the election Mr. J. P. Damm and Mr. Wm. Lehr, successively. When the ard assumed the management of the China Mission, Pastor A. Rehldt, ex-secretary of the Lutheran Mission Society for China, was ade a member-at-large of the Board. Owing to the death of Pastor Sievers, this did not increase the membership of the Board.

The Board recommended that the treasuries for India and China merged; that a General Secretary, who could visit the fields and tote all his time and energy to the prosecution of this work, be thorized; that in deliberating on the recommendations of the treey Committee, the installation of a course in missions, resolved upon at the previous convention, but not yet executed, consideration; and, finally, that more reports and article lished treating of our foreign missions.

JUVENILE MATTERS.

Literature.

(Germ. Rep., p. 156.)

The Committee for Juvenile Literature reported that it has 1,728 books, of which number 627 were found to be unfit. The list contains about 500 titles, covering narratives and general ature, natural history, ethnology, travels, biography, and his These numbers are to be increased as soon as possible.

The Committee's experience warrants the view that the Commust watch over the reading of its young people lest the good implanted at school and in confirmation instruction be destroy literature which promotes worldly-mindedness, false morality, or immorality. The Committee is considering the plan of arrangement material in libraries, containing titles for all ages, few manuscripts have been received. All narratives and other ings were printed at the suggestion of the Committee. There need for more books dealing with the history of our Synod Lutheran congregational life.

The following resolutions were adopted: -

- 1. That Synod give the Committee a vote of thanks for its fail work.
- 2. That the Committee be reduced from 5 to 4 members, and given authority to secure other assistants.
- 3. That pastors and teachers bring these lists to the attention their people and pupils, urging them to give preference to these box
- 4. That the teachers give preference to the "supplementary nings" which the Committee is preparing for our schools.
- 5. That pastors, teachers, and congregations cooperate in brings about the purchase of the libraries which the Committee is preparate and do everything in their power to bring into the homes wholesseliterature for the young.
- 6. That more books be written dealing with synodical hist and Lutheran congregational life, and that conferences of pastors at teachers be requested to look for capable men in their midst and them to undertake this work.
- 7. With regard to the petition of the English District that System establish a committee on young people's work, it was resolved to such a committee be created, consisting of 2 pastors, 2 teachers, at layman, residing in the same city or in convenient proximity each other. This committee shall furnish information and advicement of young people's cieties, or young people's work in general.

FINANCIAL MATTERS.

fort of Incapacitated Servants of the Church and Their Dependents.

(Germ. Rep., p. 159.)

Board of Support reported that, according to the resolution 1917 convention, the support of incapacitated servants of the and their dependents had been centralized and administered Board since January, 1918. Total disbursements for 1918. 42; for 1919, $89,534.69. Wherever possible, the Board has ed the permanent support fund. Two conferences were held presentatives of the subcommittees of the various Districts. e Board requested Synod to recognize the Support Conference; to permit the Board to place beneficiaries in charge of the committee of the District in which they reside, should that be a desirable; and to authorize the Board to issue annuity bonds cording to which the Board of Support administers the capital for donor, paying him an annuity based on his age, the capital revert to the Support Fund on the death of the donor.

A detailed plan for systematic support (pension plan) based of years of service ($11 per year of service) was presented. If adopted the Board recommends that the pension plan apply only to the necesses arising after December 31, 1920, old cases to be provided according to the present method. (For the plan in full, see German Report, pp. 161 ff.)

The committee in charge of this matter reported as follows:

WHEREAS, Two methods of support, to go into effect January 1
1921, are contained in the plan proposed by the Board of Support which methods, however, cannot be readily carried out since dissation faction would thereby easily be aroused in certain circles of Synod; WHEREAS, Furthermore, the needed capital for carrying out their plans is not at hand and cannot be readily obtained, and

WHEREAS, The support of needy servants of the Church and their dependents has also in the past three years been systematic and more ample; therefore

We Recommend:

1. That the old method of support be retained for the next three years;

2. That the proceeds of the L. L. L. Fund be turned over to the treasury of the Board of Support, and that also in future this treasury be supplied with offerings of congregations (20 cents per communicant member ought to be raised annually), gifts, and legacies, that more ample support may be given;

3. That Synod advise conferences and District Synods carefully to consider the entire plan of systematic support, and report any suggestions and recommendations to the Board of Support, to the contract a riper and better plan may be presented to Synod three year hence.

ACTION.

These recommendations of the committee were adopted by Synck Synod furthermore resolved to grant the three petitions of the Board of Support, and authorize from this treasury the support of incaped tated servants of the Church who are called by benevolent, educational, and mission societies and are advisory members of a synodical District.

The auditing committee reported that it had examined the rords of the treasurer of the Board of Support and found same to correct. The committee called attention to the efficient and economic manner in which the fund was administered, due largely to the lint work of the chairman, Rev. G. F. Kuehnert, and recommend that Synod give due consideration to the question of proper tensation to Rev. Kuehnert for the time spent on this work.

Synod resolved to accept the report of the auditing committee, while appreciating the splendid services of Rev. Kuehnert, ded to enter upon the recommendation of the auditing committee, it did not desire to establish a precedent.

Board expressed the opinion the Synod ought to be in an of many more and larger legacies, that it would be additat, in future, all legacies be willed to Synod. Should a seire to have his legacy benefit a certain institution, it need indicated in the will or the legacy. The Board requested all which had legacies for Support to turn them over to Synod. It is cases this was done. The Board recommended that Synod all Districts, as well as the authorities of institutions, in of legacies, to report annually to the Board concerning these that they might be included in the report to Synod. It is also of the Board that the question of investing legacies be determined by the Board of Directors.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

Report of School Board,

April 1917 to April 1920. (Abridged.)

(Germ. Rep., pp. 226-237.)

ing the past three years lesson plans, or schedules, were pred sent to the various Districts. The resolution of the last an providing for regular visitation of schools was carried out istricts. Some Districts have engaged school superintendents have provided for the betterment of their schools in other the school question was thoroughly discussed at all District ome Districts our brethren were compelled to carry on severe gainst Councils of Defense and proposed legislation, designed if not to destroy our schools. Every possible effort was made in untoward legislation, but without avail. We must thereath more earnestly, pray diligently, and employ every lawful that the prize be not wrested from us.

thin the Synod one finds, on the one hand, great enthusiasm schools, but, on the other hand, weariness and little zeal for ing schools. One difficulty attending the organization of is this, that the State laws no longer permit parish schools hey are conducted five days a week. This makes it difficult ors to begin schools. The congregations must be ready from inning to employ a teacher. Where a congregation has once hed itself to a Sunday-school as a substitute for a parochial it is a difficult matter to bring about any change. A number is were disbanded owing to the dearth of teachers. All told,

Board also presented seven recommendations. These, torith the recommendations contained in a number of memorials, mmarized in the following recommendation of the committee we of the report:—

that in future the School Board consist of eight members, 3 teachers, and 3 laymen, one of whom shall be an attorney. That the duties of said committee shall be by advice, ennent, instruction, and admonition to care for the preservation, ment, and spread of our parish school system. This comhall on the one hand maintain or reawaken the proper enfor our schools. To this end it shall immediately make a survey of the status of our parish school system, and then see statistics at all times as correct and complete as possible. have articles on Christian Education published in all synod-policals, provide a press service for District and congregational papers, as well as furnish tracts, school-sermons, and sem. It shall secure information as to where teachers may be dinformation concerning lesson plans, schoolbooks, school and the interior arrangement of schools in the various Digive such information to the individual Districts. The in general look upon itself as the servant of the District and in every way be of service to them in fostering and our schools.

This committee shall, on the other hand, ward off the the enemies of our schools. It shall gather information hostile tendencies and labor to remove the danger by instruprotest at the proper place. Such information of a prival shall be transmitted to the Districts. In particular this shall keep the general public informed as to the purpose achievements of our schools, and, to this end, provide for lication of proper articles in the daily press. Wherever a sarises, it shall, on request, assist the respective District every way.

- 3. That the School Board be empowered to engage a Secretary, who shall devote his entire time and energy to and be responsible to the School Board. The Board of Directo provide the necessary means.
- 4. That, whereas we as a Synod are firmly determined, help of God, to carry on our parish school system, all congrand parents be urged to send as many pupils as possible normal schools in the coming fall, and that all teachers and who are teaching school be especially requested, despite hours to weary of their blessed work in these hard times.
- 5. With reference to the memorial concerning the reteachers only during the summer, the committee recommens Synod urgently advise all congregations to avoid needlesslying the schools when removing teachers.

ACTION.

Synod adopted these recommendations. Properly speaks was no debate. Many eloquent words, however, attested the enthusiasm with which Synod was resolved to carry on system.

Rev. Frincke was given the floor to address the convergence of the fight for our schools in the State of Michield keynote of his speech was that Michigan is in reality of ground for the school system of our entire Synod.

Synod heartily endorsed the protest of the Michigan D behalf of its parochial schools, and wished the brethren Go their efforts to save these schools, assuring them of its financial support in their campaign for civil and religious

APPEALS.

(Germ. Rep., pp. 237. 238.)

elected two special committees to whom the following referred:—

ceal of Pastor M. Flachsbart, of St. Charles, Mo. — The referred to the Board of Support.

peal of Mr. F. Rindt, of White City, Kans. — The matter to be outside the province of Synod and referred to the district.

peal of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Pieper, of Edwardsville, Ill. aint was dismissed as unwarranted.

peal of O. H. Pannkoke, New York City. — The appeal was long to the jurisdiction of the English District, to which that was referred.

to the fact that the charges of O. H. Pannkoke against of the Lutheran Witness were not specific, and that proofs me were not adduced, Synod refrained from judging in the transition of the Lutheran Witness through a comther appointed by the President or elected by Synod, if in the proper form.

INTERSYNODICAL MATTERS.

committee in charge of the report of Synod's representatives tersynodical conferences reported that, by the blessing of intersynodical conferences of Missouri and Wisconsin with Iowa have borne fruit, in that the representatives of the mods engaged in the discussions have agreed to a series sees on the doctrine of man's conversion, thus warranting that the synods hitherto divided by doctrinal differences to a better mutual understanding in this doctrine.

committee reported that it had examined said theses and om not only conformable to the Scriptures and the conof the Lutheran Church, but also a concise presentation of tural doctrine of conversion, offering a sufficient basis for it in this doctrine.

d resolved to have these theses printed and sent to all conby the respective District Presidents for inspection, disand examination.

teas, however, the goal of the intersynodical conferences the doctrine of election—has not yet been achieved, Synod furthermore—

- 1. To declare itself ready together with our sister Syncconsin to continue the doctrinal discussions with the Iowa Synods.
- 2. That the present committee, consisting of Prof. Gen. Pastors Otto L. Hohenstein and J. G. F. Kleinhans, continued sent our Synod at the conferences.

In conclusion Synod also expressed the hope that the the Church who has commanded us diligently "to keep the the spirit in the bond of peace" would continue to vouch blessings on these conferences, and recommended them to the cessory prayers of its members, in order that the praisework of complete doctrinal union, and, God willing, of peaceful coof said synods may be achieved.

Manual for Young People's Society

By PROFESSOR E. H. ENGELBRECHT.

Upon the initiative and under the auspices of the appointed by President Pfotenhauer for English Religious logical Literature, Professor Engelbrecht of our Normal River Forest has written a book which, we think, fills a our literature, and really fills that gap. The need for organ maintaining young people's societies is keenly felt in almour churches, but frequently such societies are not formed formed, languish and succumb because there is no guidant erence material available to guide the inexperienced to do with be done, and to do it as it should be done.

A careful mother will not permit her infant child to a pair of scissors; she will prevent harm by sheathing the ends in an empty spool or, better still, by substituting a to not dangerous. Similarly a judicious congregation, recognizion people's perfectly natural instinct for sociability, will not parental solicitude to inhibitions, but will sheathe the danger of its young people or provide innocuous substitutes. And Engelbrecht's book is to be helpful in this direction by telling organize the societies, how to keep them true to their proper and out of unwholesome tendencies, how to keep them inter yes—amused. And right in this connection we anticipate that some one may make when comparing the group title of (Concordia Series of Modern Literature, Theological and with the many pages in this book that list and explain social The Committee in charge of this series considered this, big courage of its convictions in planning the book just as it games and all. If our young people are the church of the and they certainly are, - then we must properly take care or they are likely to improperly take care of themselves.

The book is subdivided into Educational Features, Ac Social Activities, and Organization, in which chapter are in most important rules of order, as well as a model constit by-laws. Its 122 pages,  $5\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ , with full cloth binding a erate price of 75 cents, postpaid, render it an almost ind volume in the library of every pastor, parochial school tall officers of young people's societies. The Walther Legin particular will welcome this manual, as it anticipates officers have been planning, and as it is written by their pronational field secretary, who was secured by us as author cause of his and his colleagues' experience in the Walthwork.
